
Human Rights Day 2026 at Freedom Park Heritage Site: Free Entry, Tours and 360° Views

Enjoy free entry to Freedom Park this Human Rights Day.

On 21 March 2026, visitors are invited to experience a space where memory, heritage and reflection come together — at no cost.

A Day of Reflection and Meaning

Human Rights Day is a time to reflect on the struggles that shaped South Africa's democracy and to honour those who fought for the rights we enjoy today.

Freedom Park stands as a national heritage site dedicated to telling this story — offering visitors an opportunity to engage with the country's journey to freedom in a meaningful way.

A Place of Memory: The Wall of Names

At the heart of Freedom Park is the Wall of Names, a powerful tribute to those who lost their lives in the struggle for liberation.

Each name represents a life, a story and a sacrifice — reminding us of the cost of freedom and the importance of preserving this legacy for future generations.

Experience More with Guided Tours

Visitors can enhance their experience by joining one of the guided tours available. These tours offer deeper insight into the symbolism, history and significance of the site, bringing to life the stories that shaped our nation.

Take in the 360° Views

Freedom Park also offers breathtaking 360-degree views of Pretoria, creating a space that is both reflective and restorative. The natural surroundings provide the perfect setting to pause, reflect and connect.
